Keeping Slovenian Community Together

Many thanks and congratulations for your...
...to the Slovenian-American people and for your...
...as a lasting legacy for our community for...
...for the past 110 years. I remember you...
...Dobro, Zdravo, Dobro jutro, sitting in "the...
...available than the living ones, getting his...
...copy of the A.D. It was always his touchstone...
...for the Cleveland and the Slovenian for...
...left on December 20, 1960. On that day...
...the "Holy Trinity's" Third Chapter of 40...
...editors and two editors recruited from the...
...America above Pacific Avenue, held playing...
...with my Dad at night given playing trophies...
...to the Cleveland Club and awarded by his...
...Francisco. He never returned to live in Cleve...
...and throughout his career in the U.S., he...
...always made a point of subscribing to the...
...A.D. and was one of my first print to print...
...in Cleveland and around the globe.

In 1981, when he and I became involved in...
...the A.D. was our informal and helping guide...
...When Leo Shapiro passed the first official...
...recognition of Slovenia, the news showed up...
...for the A.D. Then, some years later, when...
...former Ambassador Ernest Potočnik stepped in to...
...be Slovenia's Consul General for Cleveland, I...
...found in the A.D. an ally in communicating...
...with the Slovenian-American community...
...around Cleveland. The A.D. generously...
...published every article and photo submitted...
...at the end, during his time in office.

Then, when I returned home during the...
...language versions of Slovenian books with...
...my beloved "Dobro" of Slovenia, the A.D. re...
...mained the most supportive and cost-effective...
...means to reach my audience. In past because of...
...your support, there are thousands of Slovenian...
...albums, book books, brochures, maps and other...
...publications in homes and libraries across the...
...country.

There are just a few of the ways in which...
...you generously touched my future and my...
...life. In the larger scheme of things, the A.D. has...
...sustained the flame of the Slovenian...
...cultural spirit for three more great years...
...hardship despite for those three great years...
...and never wavered. It has been a great...
...sustaining, refreshing commitment and caring...
...that we will all miss.

With fond regards and love wishes for all...
...in the A.D.

Sincerely,
Mark Rapone
Junior Honorary Consul General of Slovenia

A Fond Farewell

After 110 years, we are reluctantly forced to...
...close this in the last Ameriška Domovina (Ameri...
...sian Home) newspaper. This ends the remarkable...
...journey of the oldest Slovenian paper in the world...
...in America.

We have reached the end of publishing a weekly...
...newspaper as far as our mission, effort, and...
...resources throughout the country.

Slovenia is truly making its way among...
...the great of the world. Likewise the Ameriška Do...
...movina was dwarfed by the mighty dollar, yet a...
...diligently founded the Slovenian successful...
...immigration into America's mainstream as they became a...
...solid part of this country.

We will remember your kind deeds that helped to...
...make the American Home a great, independent...
...and meaningful newspaper. We have never...
...changed our original philosophy of "Foreign and...
...Native for All" and "American in Spirit; Foreign...
...in Language Only." Ameriška Domovina has tried to...
...accelerate growth of Slovenian nationality into...
...American culture, and retain the customs of our...
...Slovenian heritage by second and third generation...
...readers, while championing the cause of an independ...
...ent Slovenia, and keep readers informed of Slovenian...
...activities throughout the world.

We are truly overwhelmed at the many kind...
...words, letters, and articles from people who supported...
...their readers at the closing of this paper. All of the...
...supportive attention and all our administrative and...
...management. We appreciate and treasure these...
...letters more than we adequately express.

There will always be a special place in our hearts...
...for all the wonderful persons we have met throughout...
...the years. The knowledge and cherished memories...
...will remain with us forever.

After all these years, it is difficult to say goodbye...
...to readers, yet it just may, be goodbye. "No long...
...thanks for everything, and may God bless and watch...
...over every reader. Love,"

We had the opportunity to reminisce about many exciting times that we shared in Washington and Cleveland over the past four years. I look forward to renewing our friendship in Slovenia in the near future.

Ambassador Samuel Žbogar Bids Farewell

Washington, August 22 - Ambassador Samuel Žbogar will bid farewell on Friday, August 22, when he will finish his four-year mandate as Ambassador of Slovenia to the United States.

Samuel Žbogar
Washington, August 22, 2008

Dear colleagues and friends,

After four successful and most enjoyable years I am today leaving Washington and the United States and returning to Slovenia. Pending the arrival of my successor, Ms Miriam T. Možgan, Deputy Chief of Mission will act as Charge d'Affaires a.i.

Looking at what I have learned and how I have grown as a person these years and looking at what we have achieved together, I 'm leaving satisfied and happy.

Slovenia is today an ally and a partner working closely with the US and contributing its share to solving problems in international relations. Due to its activities internationally, Slovenia today is more present here in Washington and in the US.

I am leaving this country also with a heavy heart. We diplomats know that a day comes when we have to move (again). And yet, in four years one puts down roots, establishes friendships, has a favorite store and a restaurant, a hairdresser, a weekend gateway and a running trail. I will miss all that.

But it is so much more than that. In four years there were so many people that entered my life and this is what I will miss most:

Friends from the Administration with whom we worked closely during the OSCE Chairmanship and the EU Presidency. We were elaborating on strengthening bilateral ties, including when preparing the visit of Slovenian Prime Minister to the White House and American President to Slovenia.

Senators and Congressman of Slovenian decent who are proud of their origin and are doing their share in strengthening our relations.

Ambassadors and diplomats who extended their friendship and were so patient and supportive during our EU Presidency and including those from smaller countries that we worked together on poetry events.

Colleagues from think tanks with whom we organized numerous discussions and round tables ranging from Balkans to energy to space travel.

People from the Slovenian community that not only received me all over the US with Slovenian warmth and open hands (and potica), but also contributed most passionately to our fundraising project for victims of landmines.

American and Slovenian business people with whom we tried to tie the knots from investments, to trade, to tourism. And especially the nice people from the National Geographic Society whom we can be proud to have for our friends.

Honorary Consuls who provide their service for Slovenia in their home states and put together great programs during my visits there.

Journalists who helped us put Slovenia more on the map of Washington and the US.

All those friends that contributed for the mine victims gave me motivation for my races and cheered for my successes.

And all the patient people from architecture and construction companies who guided us through the renovation of the embassy, a star project of my term.

And of course my professional and loyal team at the Embassy with whom we lived our big lives as a small family.

And all those people from all walks of life from all over the US with whom have crossed our paths, learned about each others stories and wishes in life and promised to keep in touch.

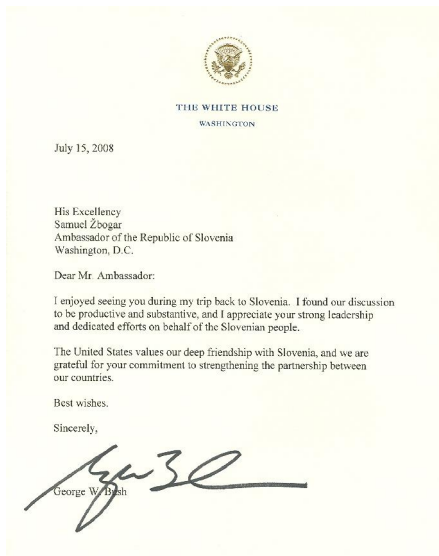

Thank you all for entering my life and for making our stay in the US a great and most memorable experience. I hope and believe that we can keep all these friendships for wherever we will end up.

I am honored to be able to serve in such a great country. I have learned a lot during these years. I tried to observe and learn and I hope I am taking some of that home with me.

Hope to see you all (not at the same time though) soon in Ljubljana, in Slovenia.

Until than best regards,
Yours,

Samuel Žbogar

US President George Bush thanked Ambassador Žbogar for his dedication to strengthening partnerships between our countries.

The Slovenian Ambassador welcomed numerous distinguished guests at the Embassy during the EU Presidency, including Secretary Rice and Secretary Gutierrez.

"The Slovenian ambassador is among the younger breed of diplomats who know that sometimes the best way to promote their causes is to get out of Washington and engage average Americans."
Washington Times on April 2007

Planting the traditional Slovenian Linden tree in front of the new embassy building.

Fundraising Marathons- Ambassador Žbogar has raised a total of $71,418.00 USD, thus providing eight landmine survivors from Bosnia and Herzegovina with the rehabilitation treatment they need in Slovenia.

Ambassador Žbogar's first marathon in Cleveland, Ohio May 2007

Mr. Ambassador,
Thank you for all your hard work and dedication to Slovenia and the Slovenian community in the U.S. We wish you the best of luck in all that you strive to accomplish in the future.
Srečno!

BEIJING GAMES: Slovenia Strikes Gold with Hammer Throw

Slovenia's Primož Kozmus picked up Slovenia's first Olympic gold medal in the men's track and field competition this past Sunday. Kozmus won the hammer final in Beijing after throwing a season's best of 82.02m to claim the gold. Kozmus jumped into the lead with his second round throw of 82.02m and consolidated his lead with four throws just over the 80m mark. ## BEIJING GAMES: Debevec Takes Bronze in Three-Position

Beijing, August 17 - Slovenian shooter Rajmond Debevec won the bronze in Sunday's rifle three-position competition at the Beijing Olympics. The winner was Qui Jian of China, while silver went to Yuri Sukhurokov of Ukraine.

In a dramatic finish, Debevec managed to squeeze a spot among the top three leaders with his final shot, after the leader until then, Matthew Emmons of the US, shot only 4.4 to drop down the ladder.

Slovenian shooter Rajmond Debevec took third place in the rifle three-position competition at the Beijing Olympics.

The 45-year-old Slovenian came into the final with a lead, but two 7-point shots meant he slipped out of the medal hunt. A final shot of 10.8 however was enough to catapult him into third place.

"In shooting you need to control every muscle but I was unable to relax my body and my hands were shaking. It's all in the head. In Sydney I felt invincible but here it was completely different", Debevec said.

BEIJING GAMES: Žbogar Sails to Silver

Beijing, August 19 - Slovenian yachter Vasilij Žbogar took second place in the final regatta of the laser class at the Beijing Olympics to take second place overall in the competition. Paul Goodison of Great Britain won the gold.

Žbogar finished the competition with a combined score of 71 points, eight behind Goodison, who had a virtually indisputable lead coming into the final race. Italy's Diego Romero was third with 75 points.

"I'm over the moon. I performed as I had hoped in the final regatta - I did not make a mistake. Everything went according to plan," said the native of the coastal town of Izola.

The second place was enough to allow the 32-year-old to move up to second overall, improving on his third-place finish in Athens and giving Slovenia its fifth medal of the Beijing Olympics, the country's biggest medal tally at any Olympics.

Slovenia's Vasilij Žbogar wins silver in the laser class at the Beijing Games.

The country of two million has so far won one gold, two silver and two bronze medals in Beijing, while its previous best was four medals (two silver and two bronze) in Athens.

BEIJING GAMES: Slovenia Hammers Armenia in Medals Per Capita

Swimming, Shooting, and now Field.

Kozmus' gold medal dislodges the country of Armenia from the No.1 spot. Armenia has held the No.1 spot in Medals Per Capita for five Olympic days, winning five medals from a country of 2,968,586 people.

*On August 19, Vasilij Žbogar's silver medal further strengthened Slovenia's No. 1 position in Olympic rankings in Medals Per Capita. Slovenia now has 5 medals.
